

HOUSEW3RK is a monthly one-hour underground electronic music programme presented by UK Bleep House pioneer Edzy (Unique 3).

Blending deep house, electronic house music and contemporary electronic sounds, each episode combines carefully selected music with artist insight, stories, industry knowledge and a healthy sense of humour, drawn from nearly four decades inside electronic music culture.

Professionally produced and designed as evergreen content, HOUSEW3RK delivers a distinctive monthly programme that informs, entertains and remains relevant long after its original broadcast.

What makes The HOUSEW3RK Show different?

HOUSEW3RK combines carefully selected music with artist insight, stories, industry knowledge and occasional humour drawn from nearly four decades inside electronic music culture.

Knowledgeable without taking itself too seriously, the programme gives listeners a deeper connection to the music, artists and scene while keeping the focus exactly where it belongs — on great records.
