

MIKE DEM

Mike Dem is a renowned Italian music and record producer and co-founder of the international project 'Individual Music Records' based in Maputo, Mozambique. Considered a promise of the Italian electronic music scene, his fame was established by his participation in the prestigious 'Tomorrowland' festival in Boom, Belgium, where he not only performed his innovative productions but also became Art Director in the Italian edition 'Unite With Tomorrowland'. His sensitivity to environmental issues led him to be appointed music-selector of the 'Green Fashion Week' starting in 2016, contributing to the Rome, Los Angeles, Las Vegas and New York editions.

Described by La Stampa as "La Promessa del Dj Producer Italiano", Mike Dem sweeps the House and Electronic Music trends with his performances. His rise in the music industry has been confirmed by appearances at major festivals worldwide, where he has shared the stage with the likes of Axwell, Martin Garrix, David Guetta, TUBE&BERGER, CLAPTONE, PLEASUREKRAFT, CLEAN BANDIT, SECONDCITY, and many others.

Constantly exploring new boundaries in electronic music production, he has signed tracks with major labels such as ARMADA MUSIC, KING STREET, EGO, TACTICAL, and many others throughout his career.
